TECHNICAL SPECIFICATION

REFRIGERATOR
(APP Item No. 2023 - 0031)

I. BACKGROUND

The National Privacy Commission (NPC) is the country's privacy watchdog: an independent body mandate to administer and implement the Data Privacy Act of 2021 and to monitor and ensure compliance the country with international standards set for data protection. The law was passed in 2012, but it was only in 2016 that the first Privacy Commissioner was appointed, and the secretariat was formed.

In its pursuit of achieving its vision as the world-class regulatory and enforcement agency upholding the right to privacy and data protection while ensuring the free flow of information and commitment to excellence, its workforce have been working hard with dedication. They have served as the backbone that dedicated their time, and support to realizing its goal.

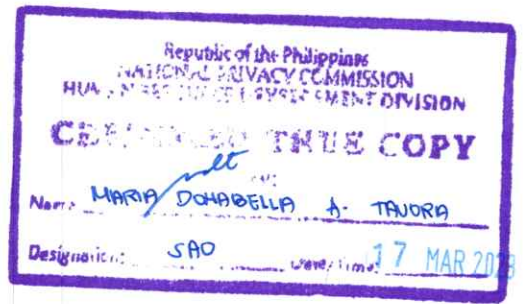

The Expanded Breastfeeding Promotion Act of 2009 defines lactation stations as a "private, clean, sanitary and well-ventilated rooms or area in the workplace or public places where nursing mothers can wash up, breastfeed or express their milk comfortable and store this afterward." As such, the HRDD included in its Annual Employee Welfare and Benefits Programs the improvement of the current lactation room, with the provision of refrigerator where nursing mothers can store the expressed breastmilk.
